It's important you tell us everything you know about an incident that might lead to a claim, whether you think it's relevant or not - it might become important later.

Rocked the boat? We've got your back (and stern). We'll navigate your claim smoothly and efficiently, always keeping you in the loop.

Procedure

It's really important that we're told straightaway about any event that may lead to a claim under your policy. So when you contact us, please also quote your policy number if you have it to hand.

We'll send you a claim form as soon as we're told of the incident. Remember, you can also download a claim form from our website www.HavenKJ.eu/make-a-claim

This should be returned to us, fully completed, as soon as possible whether or not you intend to make a formal claim and we may ask you to obtain quotations for the replacement or repair of any items lost, destroyed or damaged.

Any estimates or quotes should be sent to us straightaway, although we may also ask you to get alternative estimates. We may instruct a surveyor to inspect and /or investigate. Except in an emergency or to prevent any further damage, repair instructions should not be given without our prior agreement.

When you're happy with the repairs, the invoice should be paid by you and the receipted invoices forwarded to us for payment to you.

At your request we are able to pay the repairer direct.

Useful Information

- Please remember that the repair contract is between you and the contractor. Any instructions regarding either repair or replacement must come from you. However you must seek our agreement in the first place.
- The claim may be subject to deductions in addition to any policy excess – make sure you read the clauses in the insurance carefully so you're fully aware of these (e.g. sails, covers and outboard motors).

Helpful Advice

When loss or damage occurs, you should act like you're uninsured - in other words, act as though you're covering the cost of the problem without claiming on your insurance. This may seem unusual advice, but it's very important that, in the event of any incident involving your vessel, you take all reasonable steps to minimise the loss.

Own Damage

- Act immediately to safeguard and protect any property from further damage or deterioration (this may include first aid to the engine).
- Get help (professional if necessary) if immediately required to safeguard and protect your boat and equipment.
- Try to agree a realistic charge or fee if a tow is needed before acceptance.
- Keep and look after all broken/torn/damaged items for inspection.

Many of our crew members have sailed on a variety of boats, so we understand what makes a boater tick.

Damaged by a Third Party

- If racing, protest the Third Party if they didn't accept a penalty. Get witness(es) statements.
- Gather details of boat type/class/number/name/club and any witness(es) details in as well as the name(s) and address(es) of the helm and boat owner.
- Road accidents – get details of the driver, vehicle and insurer and any witness(es), and/or call the police to the scene.
- If possible write down all the details and make a sketch of the site.

Damage to Third Parties

- If a Third Party intends to hold you liable for damage, provide them with our details, your name, policy number and boat details. You should acknowledge any correspondence and pass it on to us immediately.
- Don't admit guilt or apologise, and don't make any offer of payment.

Theft/Vandalism

- Any theft or malicious damage should be reported to the Police promptly.
- Keep a note of the Police Crime Reference Number.
- We'll also need the serial numbers of any engines, tenders etc.
- Notify your club and local harbour master with full details of the theft/vandalism.

This Helpful Advice section is intended to provide some guidance should you have to submit a claim under your policy. It doesn't form part of any policy wording or give any indication of acceptance of a claim.

Section J – General Exclusions that apply to the whole Policy (continued)

- 4 Subject only to clause 6 below, in no case shall this insurance cover loss, damage liability or expense, directly or indirectly caused by or contributed to by or arising from the use or operation, as a means for inflicting harm, of any computer, computer system, computer software programme, malicious code, computer virus or process or any other electronic system.

- 6 Where this clause is endorsed on policies covering risks of war, civil war, revolution, rebellion, insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or any hostile act by or against a belligerent power, or terrorism or any person acting from a political motive, clause 4 shall not operate to exclude losses (which would otherwise be covered) arising from the use of any computer, computer system or computer software programme or any other electronic system in the launch and/or guidance system and/or firing mechanism of any weapon or missile.

7 A person who is not a party to this Policy has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this contract, but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

8 This insurance excludes coverage for:

- 8.1 any loss, damage, liability, cost, or expense directly arising from the transmission or alleged transmission of:
